BRIEF SUMMARY

I have a strong commitment to the software development industry because I am a serious student of computer science. My expertise in HTML, CSS, JavaScript, and numerous front-end frameworks has helped me focus on front-end development. I have a track record of collaborating effectively across functional lines to regularly produce aesthetically pleasing and user-focused online applications. I'm now working towards a degree in computer science, and I'm excited to share my knowledge and advance in the exciting industry of development.
